

WHO NEEDS TO KNOW YOUR NEW NAME?

If you choose to change your name when you get married, you must ensure that your name change is reflected on the following documentation.

Many of these changes will require a copy of your marriage certificate and, in some cases, an original marriage certificate.

- Passport
- Driver's Licence
- Social Insurance Number (SIN)
- Provincial Health Card
- Credit Card(s)
- Bank Accounts
- Employment Records
- Insurance (group and individual)
- Investment Accounts
- RRSPs
- Pensions
- Professional Association Membership
- Voter Registration

Important Information

Information contained herein is provided for information purposes only and should not be relied upon exclusively as estate, tax planning or investment advice, nor should it be construed as being specific to an individual's investment objectives, financial situation or particular needs. You should always obtain professional advice before acting on the basis of material contained herein. While ®Dynamic Funds will endeavour to update this information from time to time as needed, information can change without notice and ®Dynamic Funds does not guarantee the accuracy or completeness of this information, including information provided by third parties, at any particular time, nor does it accept any responsibility for any loss or damage that results from any information contained herein.

© 2011 DundeeWealth Inc. Reproduction in whole or in part of this content without the written consent of the copyright owner is forbidden. Snapshots™ is brought to you by ®Dynamic Funds. ®Dynamic Funds is a registered trademark of The Bank of Nova Scotia and a division of Goodman & Company, Investment Counsel Ltd. Snapshots™ is a trademark of The Bank of Nova Scotia used under license.